

EUROPEAN DAY OF LANGUAGES is coming up!

On 26 September 2010, people across Europe will be taking part in festivities around the European day of Languages (EDL). It's a fantastic opportunity to enjoy and celebrate the 6000 languages spoken around the world, and to have some fun with languages. In schools across the country we'll see competitions, events, parties, food markets, plays, dancing and much, much more. It's a perfect way to start the new term.

There's plenty of time for you to prepare for the day, and our website is full of ideas and activities that could help you along the way.

We also have lots of resources that could help you brighten up the classroom, or that you could use for prizes, including balloons, pens, posters, T-shirts and stickers. Visit our online shop to make sure you don't miss out... Order soon, limited stock available

If you have any questions on our products, feel free to email us at edl@cilt.org.uk