

Who are Community Involvement Workers?

Community Involvement Workers signpost families with young children aged 0 - 5 to activities, events and other agencies.

They can support families in a variety of different ways from offering advice, helping to find out about childcare and going to groups with families who are a little apprehensive.

Community Involvement Workers work together with health professionals to register families at the centres.

To find out more information please contact your local Community Involvement Worker. Contact details are listed overleaf.

What are Children's Centres?

Children's Centres are places that provide information and offer access to services for families with young children aged 0 – 5.

Thanet Children's Centres Services

Each centre in Thanet offers a variety of services catering for the needs of their community.

Please contact your local centre to find out the different services that are run.
