

Training dates for your diaries...

forthcoming courses from Kent School Library Advisory Team

Martin Salter/SLA

Our one day courses are relevant to a wide target audience of primary and secondary school personnel. Look out for more details on kenttrustweb: www.kenttrustweb.org.uk//Advisory/kslat_training.cfm Booking details for all courses overleaf.

You (KSLAT) are always keen to support current priorities around students' attainment and you are marvellous champions for the essential role of reading and school libraries in effective teaching and learning. Jerry Hurst, freelance practitioner, trainer and consultant

Terms 1 and 2 (Autumn 2009)

NEW course! Secondary

Reading Connects: building a whole school reading community

Come away with practical ideas for making reading visible and strategies to engage boys and involve families

For: Secondary school teaching staff, literacy coordinators, library staff and all members of the school community with an interest in promoting reading

Course Leader: Nick Batty, project manager for Reading Champions at the NLT

Date: Monday 21 September, 9.30am – 12.30pm

Fee: £50

NEW course! Primary

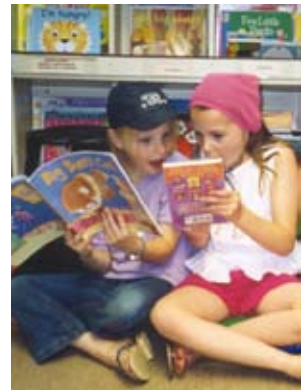

Primary Reading Activity Workshop: 'ready to use' reading activities for KS1 & 2

Participants will be introduced to practical reader development activities and quality resources which can be integrated into a whole school reading strategy

For: KS1 & 2 literacy coordinators, library coordinators, class teachers and TAs

Course Leader: Jerry Hurst

Date: Friday 16 October

Leading Edge

A newsletter for libraries in Kent, Medway and independent schools

Produced by the Kent School Library Advisory Team

Issue 27 Summer 2009

NEW course! Primary

Festival Fantasia: create stunning displays for all the major festivals

Following on from last year's very successful 'Dynamite Display' courses this will offer a hands-on opportunity to learn how to create visually exciting displays celebrating the major festivals of our many cultures from an expert in the display trade

For: All interested primary school staff

Course Leader: Chris Forward

Date: Friday 6 November

NEW course! Secondary

Running a Secondary School Library

This interactive training day will explore the role and aims of school libraries, identify practical strategies for running them successfully, and provide an opportunity to share concerns

For: Secondary school librarians with little previous library experience

Course Leader: Anne Harding

Date: Friday 27 November

Coming up in Spring 2010 ...

NEW course! Primary

More Than Just Reading Aloud: storytelling with books

A popular practical course which will look at new and exciting ideas and approaches with suggestions on 'the right material for you' – titles to try in different situations with different ages, interests and abilities. You will not be put on the spot!

For: Primary practitioners new to using books in storytelling or wishing to refresh or extend their skills.

Course Leader: Jerry Hurst

Date: Friday 22 January

Primary

Effective Library: Effective Learning

A popular course that explores the role of the primary school library and identifies strategies to maximise its effectiveness as a learning environment

For: KS1 & 2 staff with particular responsibility for their school library

Course Leader: Anne Harding

Date: Thursday 6 November

Unless otherwise stated:

All courses are at Kings Hill ME19 4AL

Time: 9.30am - 3.30pm

Fees: £110, 10% discount for Secondary School Support Group members

For booking and information check kenttrustweb:

www.kenttrustweb.org.uk//Advisory/kslat_training.cfm

Email: school.libraries@kent.gov.uk

Fax: 01622 605221 or Tel: 01622 605216

Contact details:

Editor: Lynn Downey:

lynne.downey@kent.gov.uk

Visit our website at:

www.kenttrustweb.org.uk?schoollibraries

Address:

Gibson Drive, Kings Hill, West Malling
Kent ME19 4AL