

e-Safety in Schools Conference

Kent Police College, Coverdale Avenue
(off Sutton Road by Morrison's Supermarket)
Maidstone, Kent ME15 9DW

Safeguarding for an Online World

Day conference Wednesday 21 January 2009

To cover costs an attendance fee of £50 applies. Places must be pre booked: www.eiskent.co.uk

Target audience includes: Kent and Independent Primary, Special and Secondary Schools.
Headteachers, Police Officers, e-Safety & Child Protection Co-ordinators, ICT Co-ordinators.

9.00	Coffee
9.30	Welcome / Attitudes to Internet Safety – audience feedback Rebecca Avery, Kent e-Safety Officer
9.45	Conference Opening Allyn Thomas, Assistant Chief Constable, Kent Police
10.00	How Internet Crime Affects Young People in Kent DI Matthew Long, PC Martin Carter, Kent Police
10.30	Refreshments
11.00	Students Attitudes to Social Networking Carol Webb and Students from Invicta Grammar School
11.30	e-Safety Effective Practice in Kent Schools Rebecca Avery Primary, Special and Secondary Schools
12.30	Buffet Lunch (the Venue does not have a seating area)
13.15	Is Your School e-Safety Aware? - audience feedback Grahame Ward, Director Resources KCC Children, Families and Education Directorate
13.30	The Extra-ordinary Extent of E-Safety ICT use with SEN and positive ICT use when children don't understand Rachel Keen, Special Education Needs ICT Peter Zein, communication aids user
14.30	Afternoon refreshments
15:00	How Should we Protect Children Online? Stephen Carrick-Davies, CEO Childnet International
16.00	Close